

It has been shown that media conglomeration hurts news coverage and helps only the select few save some money on people's salaries. Please reconsider your lifting the ban on media cross ownership, for it is not in the common interest of the American people, but in the interest of media C.E.Os and their stockholders.